DETAILED ACTION

Status of the Claims

Claims 1-30 are pending.

Specification

The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Information Disclosure Statement

Receipt of the Information Disclosure Statement filed on 05/25/05, 06/22/06 and 09/05/06 respectively is acknowledged and has been entered into the file. Signed copies of the 1449 are attached herewith.

Response to Amendment

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I, claims 1-13 in the reply filed on 02/08/08 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that Group II, written in independent form is sub generic to Group I. This is not found persuasive because each of Groups I and II are distinct inventions which can support their own patents.

Additionally, compounds under formulae (2-5) are variously classified thus, rendering the search of the two groups burdensome.

Thus, claims 14-30 are withdrawn from further consideration by the Examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to non-elected subject matter.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1 and 3-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The use of the term "comprising" consistently in a compound claim is inappropriate because the term is inclusive and fails to exclude unrecited elements. Comprising leaves the claim open for inclusion of unspecified elements. Ex parte Davis et al., 80 USPQ 448 (PTO Bd. App. 1948).

Additionally, the metes and bounds of the terms "residue"; "reactive group"; "capable of being transformed"; "residue capable" cannot be ascertained. Furthermore, residue means what is left a reaction. This meaning is not applicable here in a compound claim. Clarification is required.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 and 3-13 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-2 and 4-12 of copending Application No. 10/570,623. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims of '623' are broader in scope than the current claims. Note the elected species is disclosed on page 13 of '623'. Thus, there is considerable overlap of subject matter, namely the various substituents on structural formula (I). Note X in each of the pending application is

Thus, at the time of filing this application, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found the instant compounds obvious over the reference since the reference discloses a species and compounds under the genus of formula (I). Additionally, it is well settled that a reference may be relied upon for all that it would have reasonably conveyed to the skilled artisan, In re Lamberti 545 F.2d 747, 192 USPQ 278 (1976). Accordingly, one of ordinary skill in the art would thus have been motivated to prepare compounds embraced by the disclosed reference with a reasonable expectation that the resulting compounds can be used as surface modifier for producing drugs.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
